

SPECTRUM

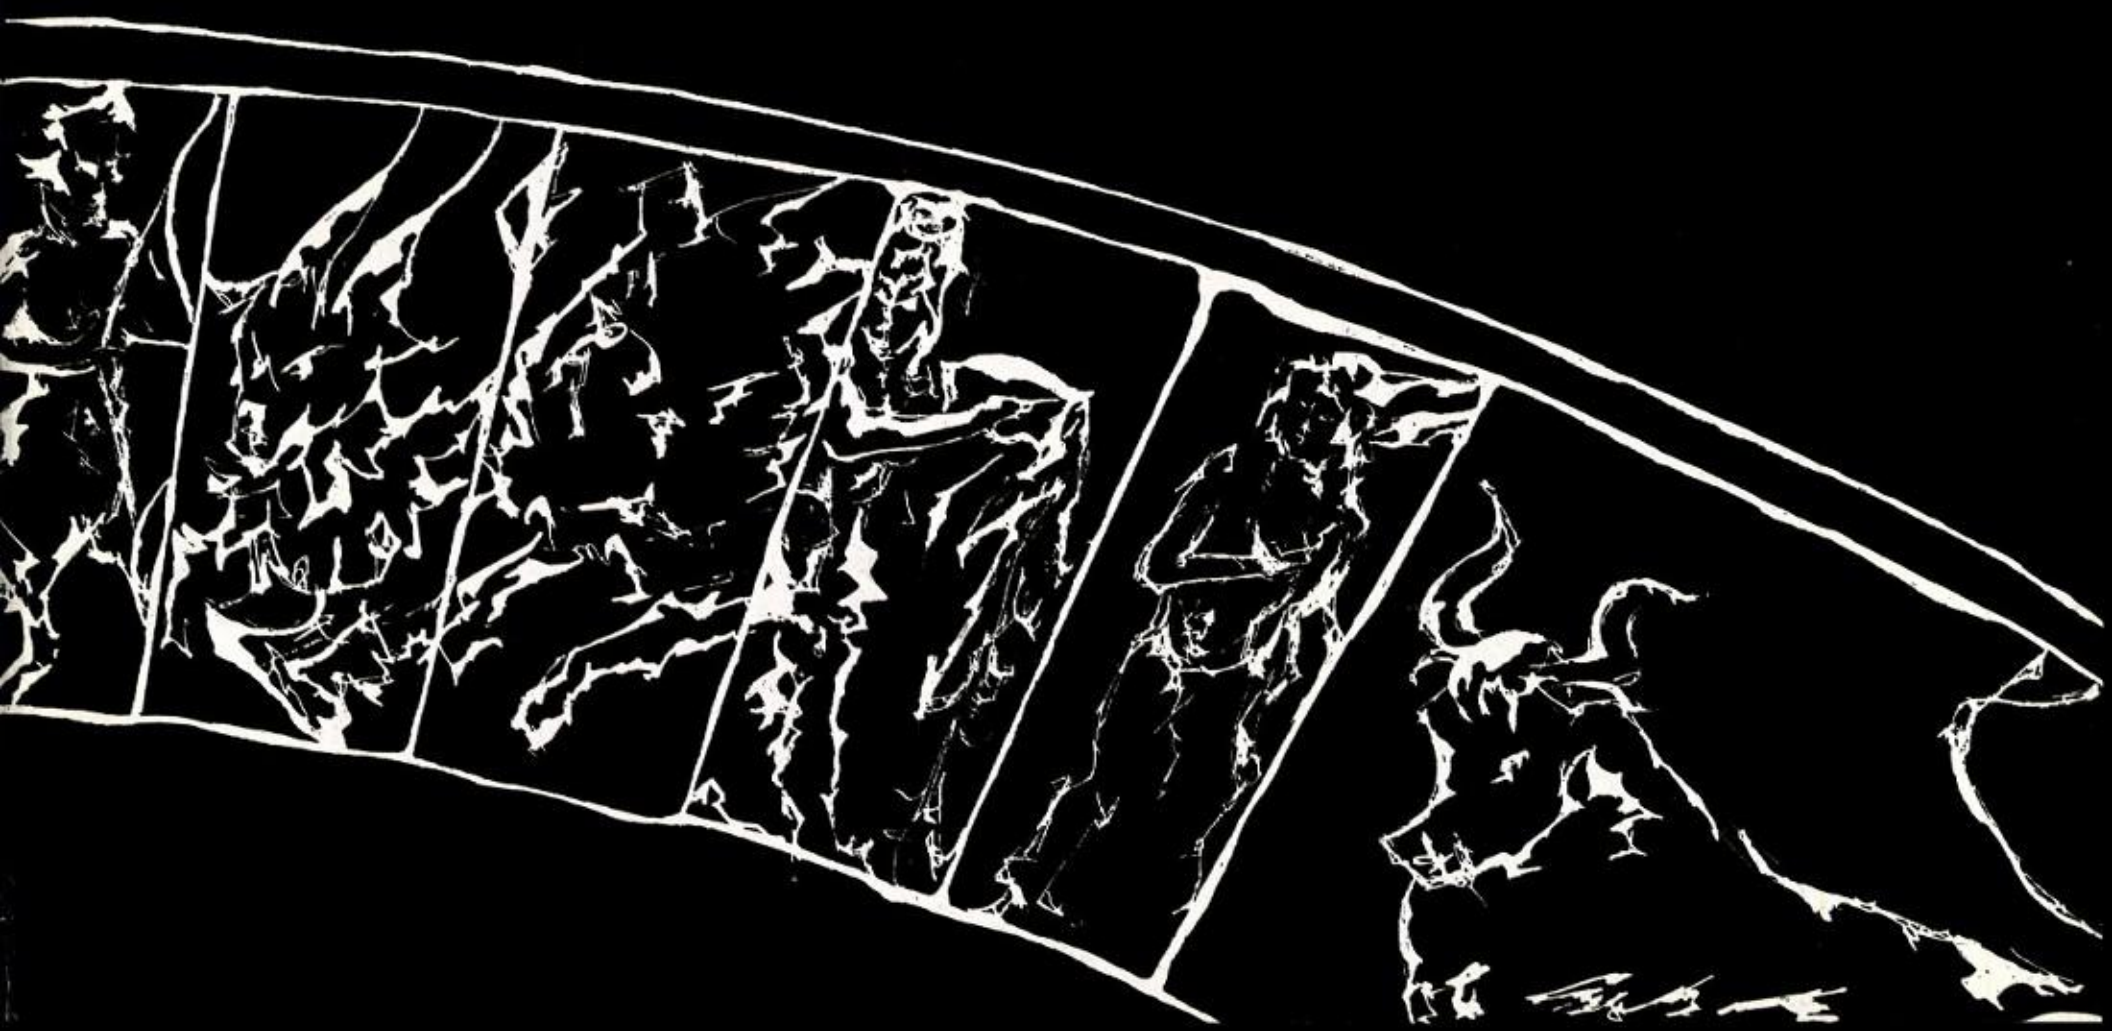

1967

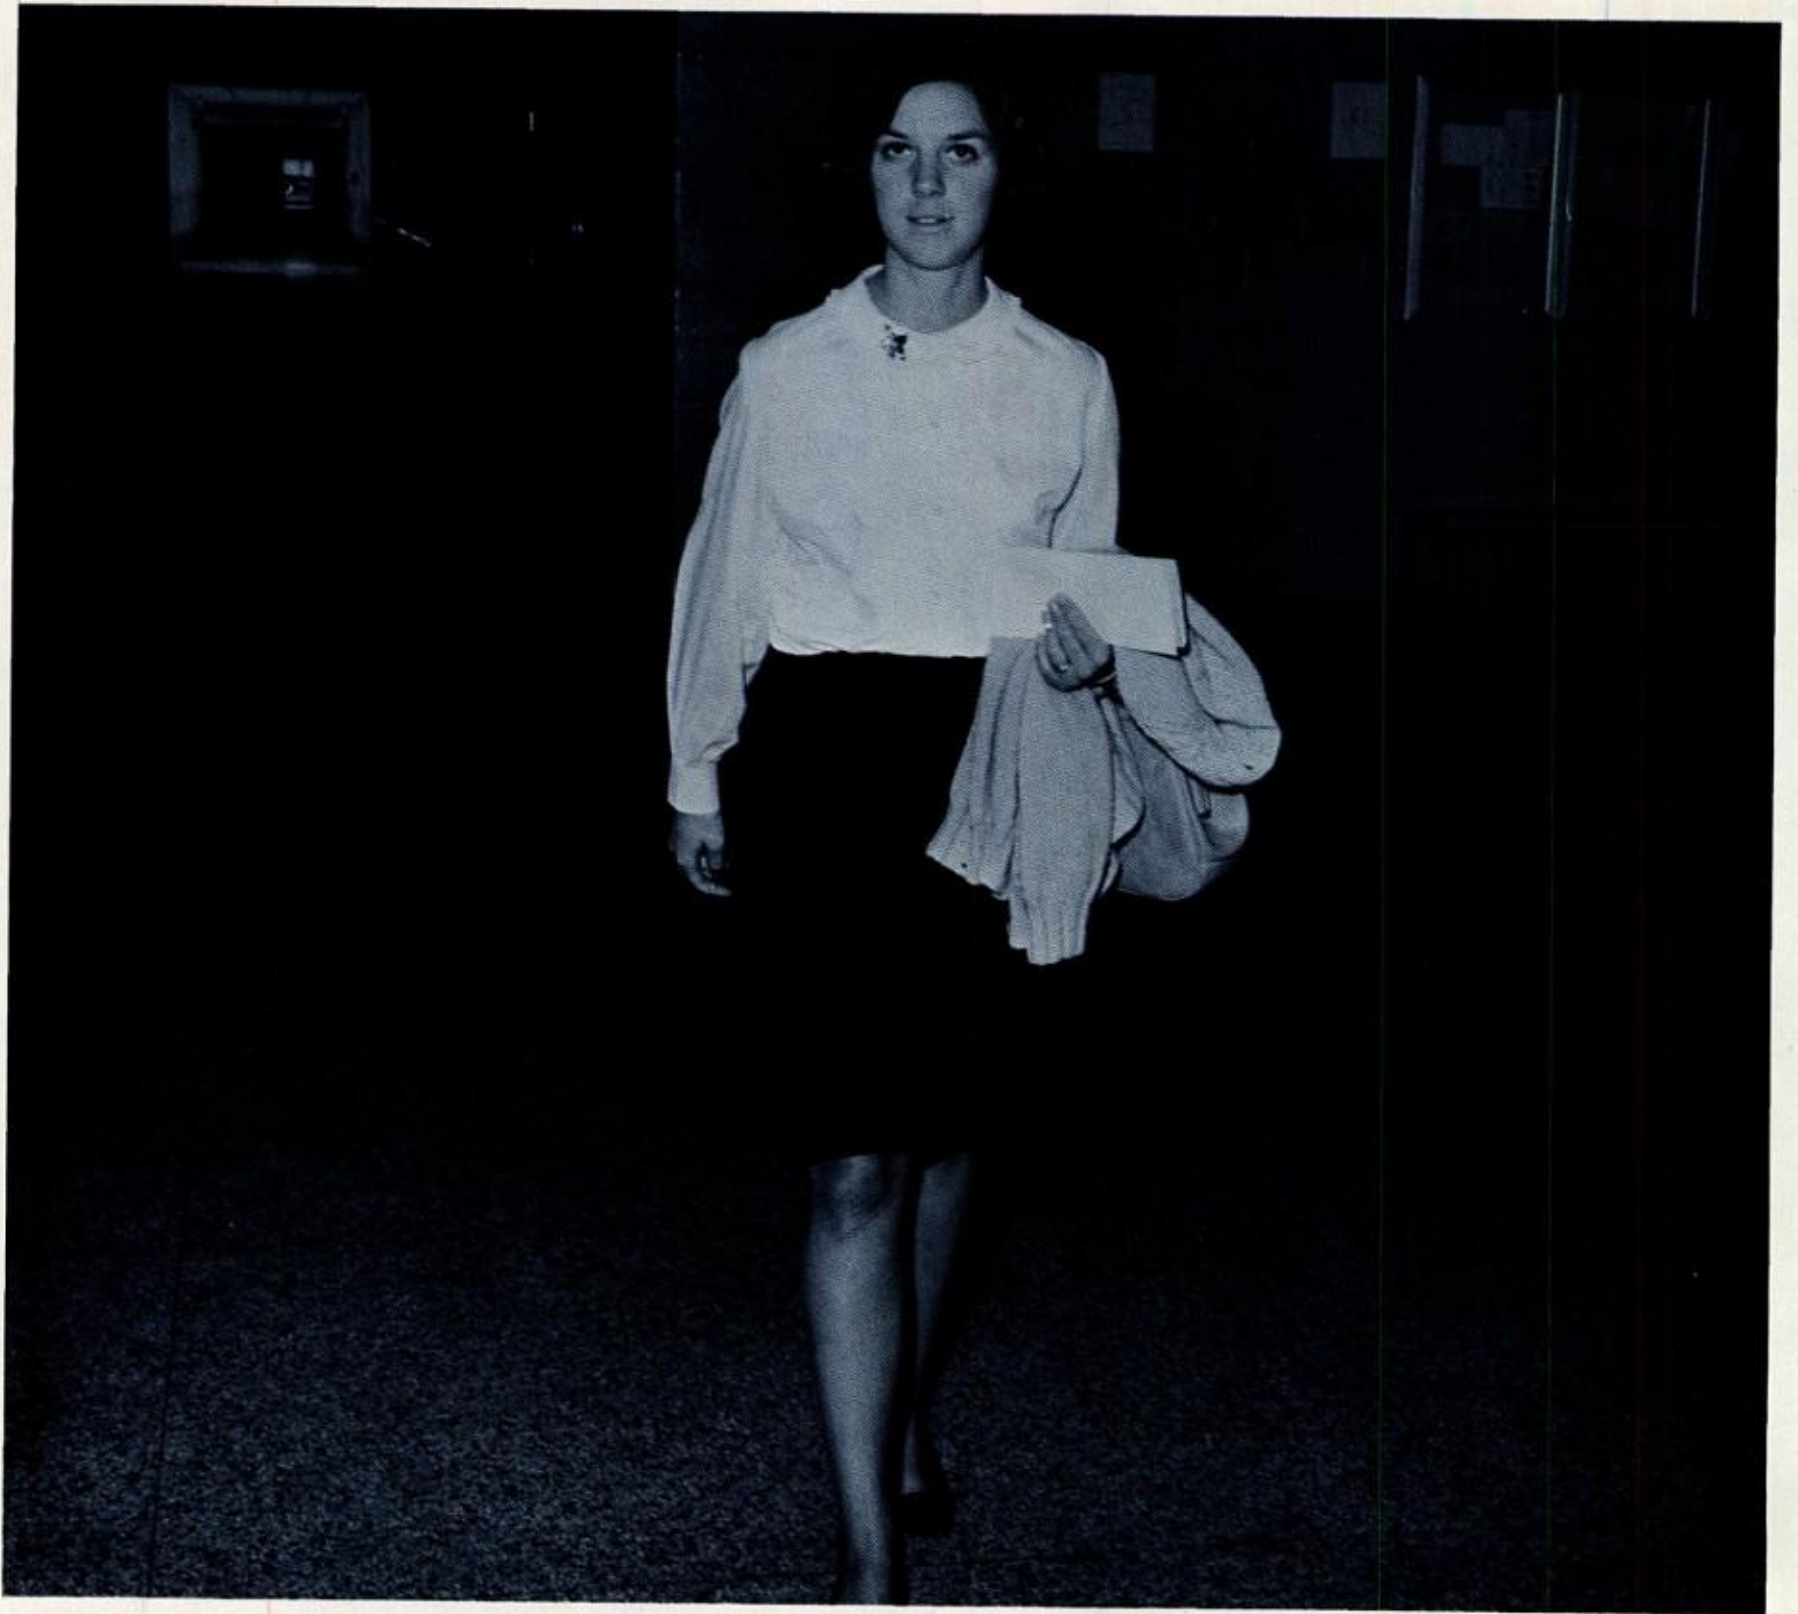

Man is striving toward the stars, pushing by tail of fire, to discover the "last frontier." Yet fire of the dragons once led the imaginations of men into the realms of the sky to search for a way of life. Have our "wings of steel" led us to their Virgo—Leo—Cancer or to only one star, or two or three? Will man find that a MAN cannot be merely one star, but must be all—Virgo as well as Sagittarius, realistic as well as optimistic, Cancer as well as Leo, humble as well as confident?

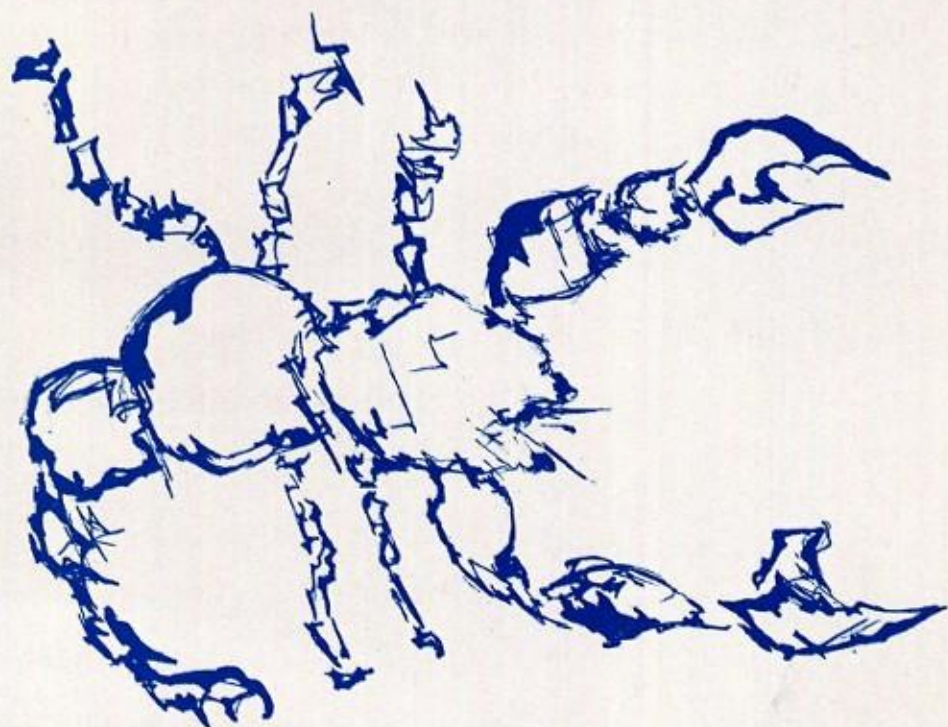

Dedication

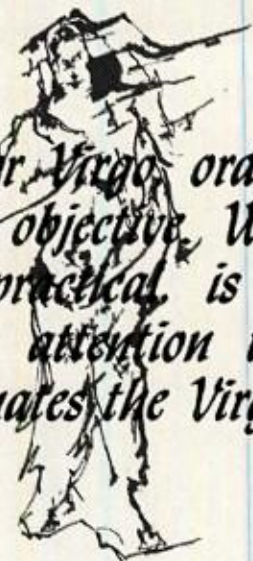

Throughout history, countless energetic Scorpions have unselfishly rendered their services as leaders of their fellow men. Among them we recognize one who has been particularly devoted to our class during our years at Sun Valley. Her dynamic personality and her capability for organization have been invaluable to our class in achieving success. Because she means so much to us, we the class of 1967 are proud to dedicate our Spectrum to Mrs. Durst.

For Virgo, order is the main objective. While being practical is a main trait, attention to detail fascinates the Virgo mind.

“ . . . And Now Tomorrow . . . ”

A significant phase in the life of each senior is now beginning. Graduation from high school is not the ending; more correctly it is the beginning of a new venture whether it be a job in industry, further education, marriage, the armed services, or any one of many avenues open to you.

Whatever your goal, the past is behind you, and now tomorrow beckons with its promises, its challenges, and its frustrations. How you meet it will determine your future.

Sincerely yours,

Wm. G. Moser

Wm. G. Moser
Superintendent of Schools

Aries possesses the qualities of courage and adventure while exercising the traits of a leader and an individualist.

June 1, 1967

Your high school days are over. We are in the midst of a period where education and the achievements of the intellect are esteemed and pursued as in no other age. Many of you will enter college, others will find places in a variety of occupational fields, and some will serve our country in the military service. It is our hope that, during the years you have been with us, we have been able to assist you in developing the skills and abilities which you will find are necessary for solving the new and different problems which will confront you in the days to come.

Yours has been an outstanding class. We think you have applied yourselves well and have tried to take full advantage of your opportunities. But do not feel that now you can rest on your laurels. Continue to look for ways of improving yourselves. If you do, I am confident that each of you in his own way will be successful.

Edward J. Narcum

May we salute the Class of 1967 and congratulate them on their success through the publication of this yearbook.

It is a treasury from which school events of the past, present, and future may be drawn. This system of recording is enjoyed by all persons in our community as well as persons directly connected with the senior class and the Sun Valley Senior High.

Arthur C. Kretz
Assistant Superintendent
Business

For the past twelve years you have been preparing for the time when you would be taking your place in society. For most of you this time has now arrived. It is my feeling that you have been adequately prepared, but only time will tell whether or not you can meet the challenge ahead of you. I wish you luck and hope that you are a success in whatever field you select to achieve your place in society.

Arthur L. Knowlton Administrative assistant—Business

In the months to come you are going to be flooded with advice. As seasoned advisees you are quite capable of listening to it as the occasion requires. It might be well to remember what Sophocles said: "Do not believe that you alone can be right. The man who thinks that, the man who maintains that only he has the power to reason correctly, turns out empty."

Theodore F. Cramer—Administrative assistant—Special Services

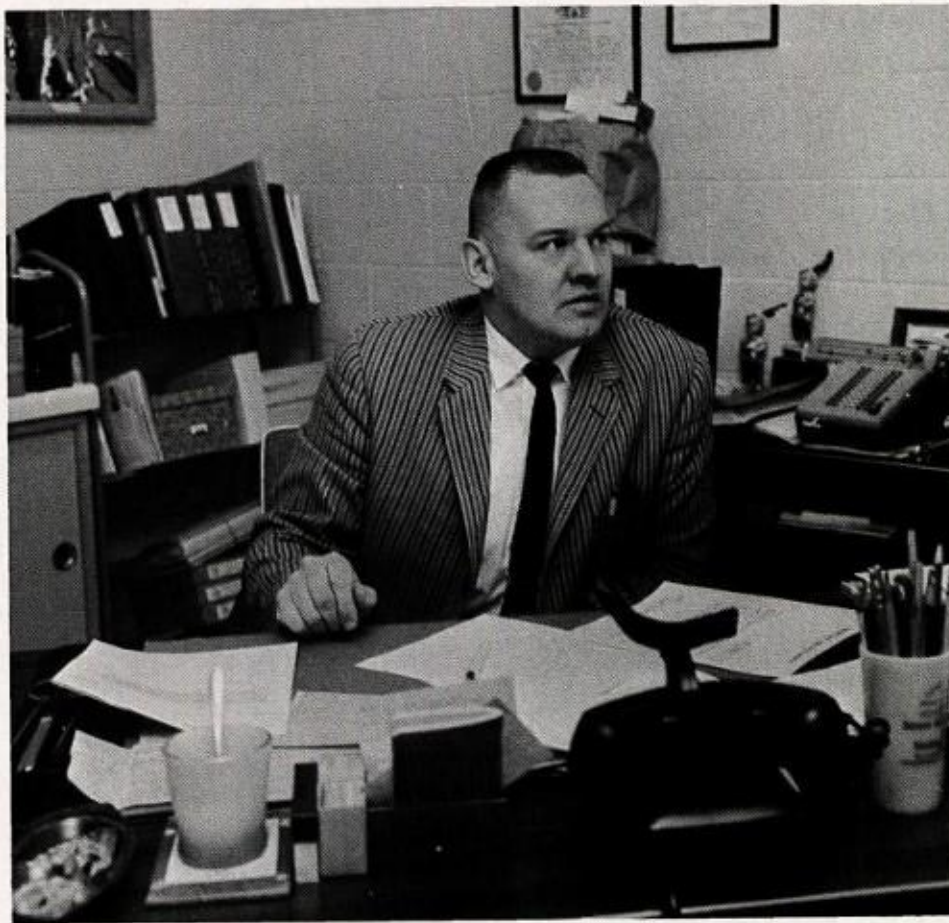

To The Class of '67:

It has been a pleasure to work with a wonderful class. With students like you it's no wonder "Sun Valley is the best". I hope we have given you our best and that you have come to realize that you should give your best in everything you do. If you do, you will have few regrets. Good luck in all that you undertake.

K. P. Michael
Assistant Principal

Mrs. Anna I. Vadino, O. Alan Wittkorn, Franklin W. Turner; Fred J. Smeeton, Warren R. Pierce, Leon H. Layton

Congratulations on the occasion of your graduation from Sun Valley High School. Let me quote a few lines from Henry Wadsworth Longfellow in wishing you continuous happiness and success:

"Under a spreading chestnut tree
The village smithy stands;
The smith, a mighty man is he,
With large and sinewy hands,
He earns whate'er he can
And looks the whole world in the face
For he owes not any man."

Harry M. Hill
Administrative Assistant—Instruction

Too many of us today are letting the other fellow do our thinking for us—what clothes to wear, what hours to work, what placards to carry, and even what people to dislike.

If your generation is to solve the problems inherited from my generation you must learn to be persuaded by your personal determinations of what is right and wrong rather than by mass emotionalism. You will need to have a better respect for your fellow man than does my generation. You will need a stronger faith in God.

Sun Valley High School sends you forth to make our world a better place for all. God-speed

Walter M. Rhoades
Assistant Superintendent

To my fellow classmates:

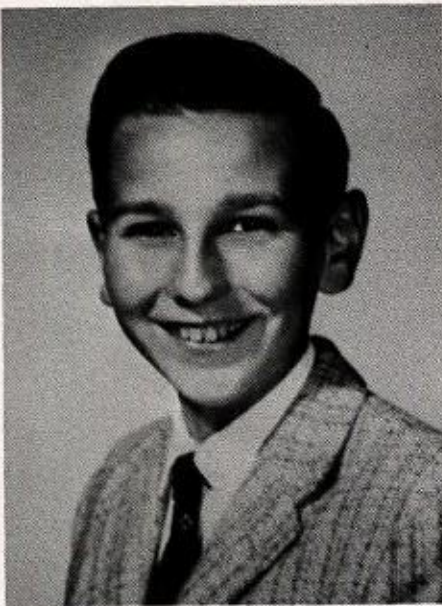

It has been a wonderful year in Sun Valley for me as well as for you. Each has gained more than knowledge, as this year we have taken upon ourselves the maturity that is necessary to step into our places in life. As each of us goes his separate way, may God bless every one of you while in pursuit of happiness and success.

Sincerely to my friends,
Robert Wesley Casey Jr.
President of the Class of 1967

Senior class officers: Tom Tatum—V.P., Adeline Cirilli—Hist., Vicki Merryman—Sec., Tony Marchigiani—Tres., Advisors—Mrs. Durst and Mr. Downey

in memoriam

The world remembers Einstein, Michelangelo, and Babe Ruth—and true, their achievements will always be remembered. Eric Scott Hoover was not one of these men, yet does that make him less significant?
For what greater achievement can a man have than the friendship of his fellow man. We will always remember Ricky as our friend, with the assurance that he was taken from us to serve God in His kingdom as perhaps only he can.

senior class history

1967. Under the watchful eye of Virgo, the Senior Class started off in the final year. We remember our first day as Seniors. Oh, how proud we were! We strutted up and down, basking in the envious admiration of the underclassmen. However, the effect gradually wore off; the novelty was gone. To be sure, we were still proud, but we thought it rather becoming to assume a gracious and humble manner. These are our memories . . . how sweet, how magical . . . Why we can remember . . .

Our Sophomore year sped merrily by. Under the guidance of Mr. John Koenig and Mrs. Frances Durst, we undertook the elections of our officers. We chose David Bean as President. As his assistants, we elected Donna Drinnam as Vice President, Nancy Neubert as secretary, and Denny Lewis as treasurer. To finance our activities, we sponsored a dance and a cookie sale. The social highlight of this year was the Soph Hop. We danced to the music of the Classics under the romantic atmosphere of "Stardust."

The summer of 1965 had come and gone, and we looked to our Junior year. Advising us this year was Mr. Francis Downey and Mrs. Frances Durst. Once again, we elected officers. Daniel Wells served as our President. To aid the president in carrying out his duties were: Donna Drinnan—Vice President, Nancy Neubert—secretary, and Frank Vaskelis—treasurer. The month of October brought with it the joy and excitement of receiving our Class rings. Everyone anticipated their arrival and soon the school was echoing with "turn my ring." Yes, the Juniors had received their most prized possessions . . . their class rings. By April the long-awaited event occurred . . . our Junior Prom. Rudy DeFelise and his orchestra accented the night with mystical harmony, which no one who attended will ever forget. The theme "Sayonara" did not mean good-bye to us, it meant an evening filled with enchantment. The last part of May was set aside for Senior pictures. By this time, Juniors were making preparations to begin their Senior year. Only time stood in the way.

Finally, after a summer filled with working at jobs and a good time, our final step up the ladder of education approached.

Seniors at last. After two years of anticipation, the big day came. September ninth and back to school. Everyone looked forward to a very successful year and no one was disappointed. On October 12, 1966, Senior pictures were distributed. These keepsakes were cherished mementos of lingering friendship. The sports calendar promised a very challenging season, and with a log of five wins and three losses, the football team looked to the big Homecoming Game and a powerful Penncrest team. We might have lost the game, but the Homecoming Dance made up for it. The school had voted the previous week on the Homecoming Queen. The candidates chosen for the court were Donna Craft, Donna Drinnan, Phyllis Eagle, Janet Green, Denise Hopkins, Donna Ives, and Vicki Merryman. Donna Craft was elected as Homecoming Queen to reign over the game and the dance the following night.

Drawing nearer still was the Christmas season. Completing the activities for 1966 was the Christmas Ball. This formal dance is sponsored each year by Student Council. What a beautiful sight to see our gym transformed from a common place of competition to a lovely, exotic dreamland.

January 1967, our class moved into its final six months of school. Excitement was mounting as plans were being made for the Senior Prom. At a class meeting we decided on a date. May 20. Time was moving rapidly. January 1 and May 19, seemed as one week. Our very special night was only twenty-four hours away. As last minute details were attended to, the Falcon House was preparing for us. The night of the Senior Prom was more than perfect. Our very special night had come, and everyone there was looking forward to a night that will be remembered as the most cherished experience of their high school career. But at last, all beautiful dreams must end. Memories are now the only thing left of a dream come true.

With the prom concluded, plans were being made for the Senior Class Trip. This was another event long to be remembered.

On this note, the Senior Class is once more returned to the ranks, each to go his separate way. Proms, trips, dances, all cherished memories, are now embedded in each mind as our year ends—1967.

Interact

Interact, a service club that is closely related to Rotary International, is dedicated to service to the people, not only in our own community but in many areas both home and abroad. Sun Valley's Interact Club participated in Project "Holiday Star" this year and sent books to needy schools in Europe.

Reflector

A change in sponsorship and editors caused the Reflector to come out late this year. However, the first newspaper was worth the slight delay. Under a new advisor, Miss Quigley, and six new editors, the staff worked hard to bring to the students of Sun Valley news of school activities and entertainment as well.

d.e.c.a.

The main purpose of the Distributive Education Clubs of America is to create future leaders in marketing and distribution. D.E.C.A. is one of the largest and most well known clubs at Sun Valley. Our new coordinator, Mrs. Emma Balchunas, has worked hard to make this year a big success. Our activities have included—candy sale, employer-employee banquet, D.E.C.A. Sweetheart contest, Conferences (local, state, and regional), and many more. Through its many accomplishments, D.E.C.A. has become a greatly admired organization.

scott hi-q

This year a new organization was added to Sun Valley's calendar of academic organizations and events. The Scott Hi-Q first team consists of four members and one alternate who compete scholastically with other schools in three meets. Under the leadership of Mrs. Casanova, the team endeavors to bring recognition to our school, and to increase their own store of knowledge.

student council

One of the most important organizations in the school is the Student Council. A closer relationship between administration and the student body was established this year. The versatility of the Student Council is evident in its many accomplishments. This year Council sponsored a Homecoming Dance, Christmas Ball, and Hootenannies. Council also maintains the Student Store, publishes the student directory, and performs services for the community, such as gifts to orphanages and charities. Student Council deserves our thanks and our congratulations for its work in improving Sun Valley this year.

drill team

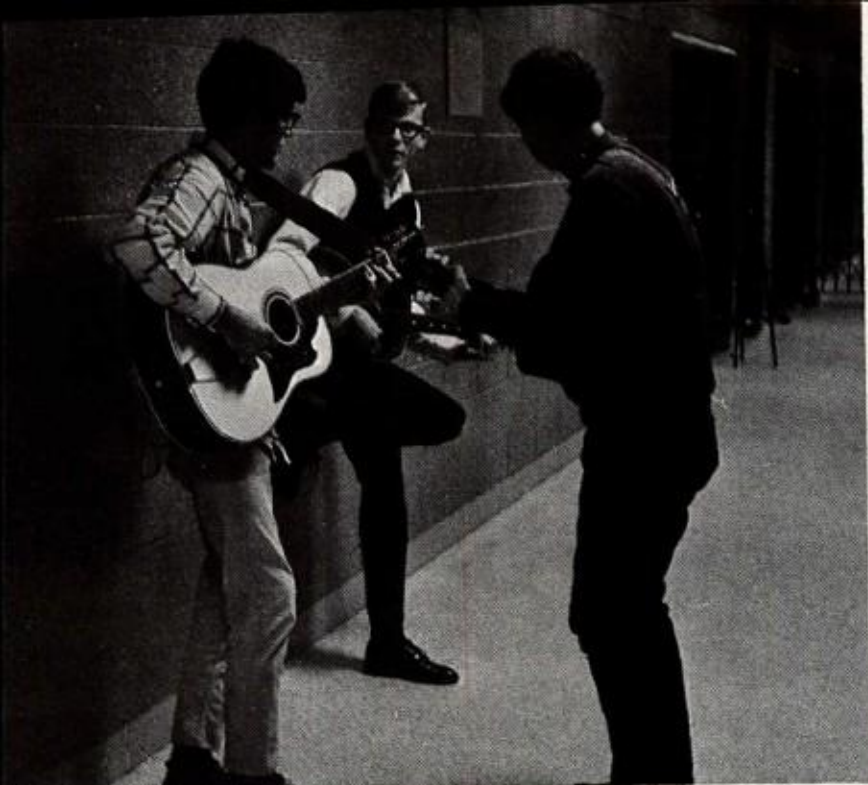

This year's band motto has been "The Year to Make It Happen." The band has been as active as ever with such parades as Ephrata, Collingdale, New Holland, Brookhaven, Upper Darby, Aston, and the Governor's Inaugural. They also have participated in football half-time shows, pep rallies, Christmas Concert, and singing at Christmas for the shut-ins. The band's head majorette was Nancy Neubert; captain of the majorettes—Marilyn Moulder, co-captain—Linda Bateman; drill team captain—Adeline Cirilli, co-captain—Charlotte Blake; color guard captain—Lisa Pilleggi, co-captain—Ruth Grimes. The band officers for 1966-67 were: President—John Colvin; Vice-President—Gary Winbourn; Secretary—Nancy Neubert; Librarians—Adeline Cirilli and Pat Kirchdorfer; and the student director—Ed Faulkner.

homecoming

Homecoming marked the end of a long and rewarding football season. The dance was a gay affair, highlighted by the presentation of the Homecoming court, consisting of Donna Craft, Phylis Eagle, Janet Green, Denise Hopkins, Donna Ives, and Vicki Merryman, and the crowning of Donna Craft as our Homecoming queen. Although we did not defeat our rival, Penncrest, the spirit lasted throughout the entire evening. Everyone enjoyed the dance, and all appreciated the efforts of the Athletic Boosters, who made it possible.

christmas ball

Bright lights, shopping, Santa Claus on street corners, and snow all mark the coming of the Yuletide Season. On December 17, another Christmas event took place, "Christmas Past," our annual Student Council Ball. The cafeteria was transformed into the days of old on a beautifully decorated street in the middle of "Wonderland." The highlight of the evening was the presentation of the Snowball Queen, Donna Drinnan and her court: Vicki Merryman, Phylis Eagle, Ruthanne Phillips, and Linda Ure.

powder puff football game

A new tradition was established at Sun Valley last fall. From the mist of Pro Ball, College Ball, and High School competition emerged the "fatal females," better known as the members of the Powderpuff Football team. On November 18th, the Musicales Staff sponsored a game between the band girls and the rest of the girls in the school, under the able guidance of Mrs. Rhodes, Mr. Raffaele, and a few members of the football pink team. The band girls won with a score of 13-0.

1966 was the year of opportunity, and the Vanguard's rose to the occasion. Coach Spahr's Vanguard's, with the help of Mr. Lashendock, Mr. Moses, and Mr. Kent, obtained the second best record in the history of Sun Valley. Bouncing back from a rather poor season in '65, Sun Valley established itself as a strong contender in a rugged section three race early in the season. After a close defeat by Nether Providence, the team lived up to its expectations, overpowering its next four opponents. But a few disheartening losses shattered their hopes but not their pride. They played like champions and never admitted defeat.

 Business Advisor—Mrs. Goldberg

In any trying endeavor, it gives one a great sense of gratification to realize the goals and expectations he so earnestly desired. The 1967 Spectrum has given us this satisfaction. To us it has meant hard work and long hours, but also lasting friendships and new responsibilities. Throughout the year, countless persons have sacrificed their time and energy in trying to make this a successful book. To those people we would like to express our sincere appreciation for all they have done for us and for the Spectrum. Our special thanks go to Mrs. Dora Grgurich who has helped us in every possible way and who has instilled in us the obligation to fulfill our responsibilities; and to Mr. Tom Grgurich for his patience, aid, and advice; to our Staff for their hard work and perseverance; to Linda Mitchell who has been part of our typing staff; to the Photography Staff for their time and energy; to Mrs. Goldberg and the Business Staff for their efforts in financing the yearbook; to the Administration and the faculty for their assistance and cooperation; to Zamsky Studios for their excellent photography and the processing of our pictures; to Mr. and Mrs. Hoover; to Mr. Craley; to our parents; to all those who have supported the Spectrum; and finally to Him who has given us the strength to accomplish our task.

Sincerely,
Denise Hopkins
